SUNDAY TEACHING

Picking up where we left off last week, we find the apostle Paul and company have finally found their way to Jerusalem and the end of Paul's third missionary journey. We've made it so far!

Upon his arrival, Paul learns rumors and gossip have been swirling around the Jerusalem church—a church which has a congregation 'zealous for the law'—regarding his teaching about the law of Moses. These rumors were that Paul had forsaken the law of Moses and told Jewish Christians they could not practice Jewish customs anymore. This could not be any further from the truth!

Paul would go on to give us an example of how Christians can exercise their liberties for God's kingdom: by laying them down for the sake of the gospel. Paul wrote, "I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some" (1 Cor. 19:22).

See you Sunday!
